NET RMA Sponsoring 2024 East Texas State Fair's Pig Races

Tyler organization connecting the smooth ride on "Track 49" with the convenience of driving on Toll 49

(Tyler, TX) – The North East Texas Regional Mobility Authority (NET RMA) is excited to announce its sponsorship of the 2024 East Texas State Fair's pig races, a beloved fair tradition, in Tyler from September 20-29.

At this family-friendly event, participants can watch as the piglets dash around "Track 49," competing for the title of fastest pig. The pig races will take place multiple times daily during the fair:

- Monday-Friday: 5:30 | 7:30 | 9:00
- Saturday-Sunday: 12:00 | 3:00 | 5:30 | 7:30 | 9:00

"We are excited to partner with NET RMA to bring back one of the fair's most beloved and family-friendly attractions, the pig races," said Cody Rosenbalm, President/CEO of the East Texas State Fair. "This event offers a fun and engaging way to showcase agriculture while providing a safe and entertaining experience for visitors of all ages. With NET RMA's support, we are able to continue our mission of creating meaningful connections within the community."

"This partnership offers a unique connection to Toll 49, promoting safe and reliable travel while giving back to the local community," said Glenn Green, Executive Director of NET RMA. "Toll 49 is all about making travel easier, and what better way to celebrate than with an event that brings East Texans together? Come out and join us while cheering on your favorite little racer!"

For more information on NET RMA and how to save time and drive Toll 49 with a tag, visit NETRMA.org/GetATag, and for the fair details, head to ETStateFair.com.
